Complete the activity at the bottom of page ten and add more adjectives to describe the noun. Look at page 11 Now try adding to your descriptions using a simile starting with like. I’ve done one for you: The monster I saw had smokey, oval eyes like burning cauldrons. After these activities try describing the Monster in any way you can, you will see this activity at the bottom of page 11 Worksheets will be available on dojo. Practise spellings for this week which can be found under the	English – Marvellous Monsters Look at page 12 Now let’s invent some facts about monsters. Imagine you are a world expert on them and you are answering the interview questions below. Make up one fact for each question. Start your answers with one of these generalisers. These are words like most, all, some, many, a few, usually that sum up things. For example, in response to the question, What do monsters eat? you could answer: Most monsters like hamburgers. After this, complete the challenge at the bottom of the page. Complete the worksheet on class Dojo. Practise spellings for this week	English – Marvellous Monsters Look at page 13 Now write your own questions to ask a monster. Start with a question word like what, when, where, who and how. Don't forget to end your question sentences with a question mark. Ask your parents or siblings these questions, how do they think the monsters would reply? Activity 1 page 13 Now it’s time to invent some really juicy facts. Invent some really juicy facts about monsters and start them with one of these engaging adverbs. And remember to add the comma after the adverb, just like I have. Be as creative as you like with your inventions. Practise spellings for this week	English – Marvellous Monsters Look at page 14 Monster power! Have you ever wondered just how many monsters there are? What do they look like? How strong are they? Let’s put all your ideas onto ‘Top Monster’ cards in Top-Trump style. First, take a look at mine: Your turn! Make a set of monster ‘Top Trumps’ and play with someone else at home or school. Here are some monsters to get you going but you can create as many as you like. If you don’t know how to play Top Trumps you can find out here: http://www.toptrumps.com/how-to-play-top-trumps/ Practise spellings for this week	English – Marvellous Monsters Look at page 15 Write a description of your monster! Look back at the work you completed on Monday to help you with this activity. Use your noun phrases to create a description of your monster. Write two paragraphs. The first paragraph should be all about the physical appearance of your monster. The second paragraph should focus on the personality of your monster, what are they like? What do they eat? Where do they live? After you have written this description draw a picture of your monster. Take a spelling test out of 10 with the spellings you have been practicing all week.
