Dear Parent / Carers,

It was lovely to welcome the pupils back to school this week for a busy Autumn 2 term! Lots of activities planned for Avent and to celebrate Christmas - all dates will be sent out next week!

We have our Autumn Parents-day on Wednesday 29th November – the children attend with parents in order to hear what their teacher has to say about their work and the developments made- We look forward to seeing everyone on the day! Appointment times can be booked on dojo from next week.

Kind regards,
Mrs Mousley
Headteacher

A little improvement in attendance to 94%, Well done to classes \kirby, , Rigby and Campion - all over the school target of 96%.

We still have lots of broken weeks where children are having one day or two days off a week, please try to eliminate these absences.

Well done to class Bamber winners of the toast and certificate!

PE Pumps

Can all parents please ensure that children have PE pumps for PE, during recent weeks children have been wearing trainers for PE and as they are wearing these shoes for playtime, they are bringing a lot of mud into the hall off their trainers, this is proving very unhygienic. Can you Please ensure your child has pumps in school for their PE day.

Flu Nasal Spray

If your child was absent on the day when flu nasal spray was administered in school there is a second chance for your child to receive the nasal spray.

The nurses will return to school on the 5th of December and administer flu nasal sprays for children of parents who have already signed up and who missed it on the 23rd of October.

You do not need to do anything further if your form has been signed, your child will receive the flu nasal spray if they have not had it already.
