Friday 3rd May 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have noticed a trend for pupil attendance which shows that Mondays and Fridays are regularly lower than the rest of the week.

This has become a cause for concern and as such we are taking the following steps:

1. More scrutiny will be placed on medical evidence for these days.
2. Pupils who are regularly absent on these days will be spoken to by staff in school.
3. Parents may be invited into school to meet regarding these absences.
4. Continued absence will be reported to our Education Welfare Officer and a fine may be issued.

Please also be aware that if pupils arrive to school after 8.55am this will affect their attendance percentage and as such the above new steps will apply to them also.

It is important to know that minutes missed in lessons add up and that lost learning means reduced progress. Please can you support us in stressing the importance of good attendance to your children

Most Improved Handwriting this Week

We are continuing to have a focus on handwriting. We have a handwriting board on the school corridor which displays one beautiful piece of work for each class in school each week.

As well as this we are giving certificates out in assembly for the child with the most improved handwriting each week and their name will appear in the newsletter. So for this week we have the following pupils with the most improved handwriting.

Owen	Cailen Fitzpatrick	Plessington	Maggie Clay
Adams	Freya Manning	Moore	Ethan Adeyanju

School Uniform

We are having a push on pupils wearing correct uniform. This term summer dresses are allowed instead of full uniform, and school polo shirts with school badge are allowed instead of a shirt and tie. If children choose to keep the winter uniform it must be the shirt with a tie.

All pupils must wear black school shoes not trainers or sandals.

Children can come to school with their school PE kit, with school jumper or cardigan over- we are not allowing branded named tracksuits or branded sports tops for PE. Our uniform shop is now selling SSPP tracksuits if parents want something warmer over their PE kits.

Have a happy weekend - we will see you back in school on Tuesday - Gates close at 8.55am
